

MAYOR BARBERIO'S WEEKLY UPDATE

Week of December 28, 2015

This week it was my pleasure to swear in eight new police officers to the Parsippany Police Department. It was nice to be able to end the year on a bright note by having these fine men and women join our force. These eight officers are, “the cream of the crop” and I welcome them and wish them the best. The new officers are: Wandely Torres-Czaka, Christopher Konysc, Jao Paulo Domiciano, Sean Abrusci, Shussler Ferguson Jr., Scott Baker, Denis DeMuro II and Ryan Taylor.

It is hard to believe another year has come and gone. We weathered many snow storms during the past year and the threat of a hurricane that could have had an impact almost like Sandy. We also share memories of the fun times when everyone came together as a community. Looking back at pictures of the smiling faces from the Fall Festival, the fireworks, the Memorial Day Parade and the summer concerts as well as more recent events such as Santa’s arrival and the Menorah lighting one really sees captured the essence and spirit of what it means to be all together as residents of such a great community. We have much to be grateful for and the New Year is both a time to reflect on the past and plan for the future. My resolution for the New Year will be the planning of more events and occasions that will bring us all together again in 2016.

So, before the calendar turns a page, before you receive numerous messages via text and phone, before all the festivities for New Year’s Eve begins, let me take a moment to wish you all a wonderful, happy and healthy New Year.
