

MAYOR BARBERIO'S WEEKLY UPDATE

Week of July 18, 2016

ZHUHAI ZIJING MIDDLE SCHOOL TAKES TOUR OF PARSIPPANY

This past week I was lucky enough to play host to students from Zhuhai Zijing Middle School in China, for the third year in a row. This trip was made possible by the Zhuhai TV Station, they continually select Parsippany as their place to partake in the American Education Exploration Program. The Township, in conjunction with the Board of Education, has helped to arrange and provide activities for these students.

PARSIPPANY HELPS TO COMBAT HUMAN TRAFFICKING

On Monday, July 18th, I spoke about Parsippany's initiatives in helping to combat human trafficking. The keynote speaker at the Parsippany Library was Laura Magnone, Esq., Assistant Prosecutor in the Sex Crimes and Child Endangerment Unit of the Morris County Prosecutor's Office. This event was to help the community be aware of learning the ways to identify human trafficking and also the role each person can play in putting an end to it. My hope for this project is that other municipalities will follow Parsippany's example.

Clerk's Office Implementing New RIM System

The Clerk's office along with Dave Miller, the senior systems analyst, is in the process of installing a Records Information Management System (RIM). The purpose of RIM is to go paperless and facilitate the management of records through an online system. This system will allow efficient and effective management of the records without having to deal with the cost involved in paper destruction and the storage and retention requirements involved in paper storage.

PARSIPPANY RESIDENTS STAND BEHIND THE BLUE

We are currently in a period of flux and experiencing hard times with regard to the recent rage against American police officers.

Now, more than ever, the residents of Parsippany have reached out to our police officers in a measure of support to let them know they have their backs. In Parsippany, we continue our respect of law enforcement officers who are dedicated to keeping our community safe.

We want the world to know just how much Parsippany's "Finest" deserve our prayers accompanied by our gratitude and appreciation for all they do.
