

MAYOR BARBERIO'S WEEKLY UPDATE

Week of July 25, 2016

BOILING SPRING'S BANK APPRECIATION EVENT

I was lucky enough to attend the Boiling Springs' Bank Appreciation Day. The purpose of this event was to thank emergency service personnel- including Fire, EMS, Rescue & Recovery and Police. The support from Boiling Springs Bank and many others in our community, is what makes our community one of a kind!

POLICE EXPLORERS AND CITIZENS POLICE ACADEMY TO BEGIN

The first police explorers meeting will be taking place on August 4th, 2016 at 7:00PM at the Parsippany Police Department. The recruiting for this class has been extremely successful and the class is completely filled.

The Citizen's Police Academy class taking place on September 22, 2016 is also filled completely. For more information, please contact Officer Remo D'Alessandro at 973-263-4300.

MIDDAY FRIENDSHIP NUTRITION PROGRAM

The Parsippany Community Center is one of the sites for Morris County's Midday Friendship Nutrition program. A warm, nutritious meal is provided Monday through Friday, from 11:30am – 1:00pm for a small donation of $2.00. This program is open to seniors, and daily deliveries can be arranged for the home bound. Please call 973-884-1868 two days in advance to reserve.

Thinking of learning a new language?

I have good news! The Parsippany-Troy Hills Public Library offers you many options to learn a new language. Whether you're brushing up on a language, traveling for business or pleasure, or need additional help for school the library is there for you.

State issues drought watch for Morris County

➤ The NJDEP sent a courtesy notification to inform us that they expect to issue shortly a Drought Watch for the Northern New Jersey counties. The Drought Watch announcement will call for voluntary efforts by the public to conserve water. Parsippany already has a water conservation plan in place by ordinance.

10th Annual Rockaway River Cleanup

The 10th Annual Rockaway River Cleanup will take place on Saturday, August 6th, 2016.

The clean-up will begin at 8:00am-12:00pm, the meeting place will be the Lake Hiawatha Swim Club.

The rain date for this event will be Saturday, August 13th, 2016.

MOUNT TABOR TO CROWN ROYALTY

The annual crowning in Mt. Tabor will kick off Children's Day weekend on August 5th at 7PM. The 147th annual coronation will be held at the Tabernacle, afterwards the children will perform a show. The whole Children's Day Weekend is a very fun event for everyone involved! It's something I truly enjoy being part of each year!

SENIORS TRIP TO THE JEFFERSON HOUSE

On Monday, July 25th, Parsippany residents 55+ had a lovely day at the Jefferson house, in Lake Hopatcong, the seniors enjoyed a Mardi Gras style buffet of food & drink. There was a scenic boat tour around Lake Hopatcong, with a spoken history of the lake and dancing was also enjoyed by our seniors to some "oldie music."
