Mayor Barberio's Weekly Update

As a former Eastlake student, I welcomed the opportunity to return to my alma mater on April 6th to help them celebrate their 50th anniversary. When Eastlake opened in 1967, I was in the first class to occupy the school led by principal, Andy Klein. In commemoration of this momentous occasion, the Eastlake band and all of the students from pre-K through fifth grade performed for the audience. Plans included the opening of the time capsule that was buried in 1992 and which will be replaced with items indicative of today's society, to be opened in 2042. I was able to present principal, Bryan Hershkowitz, with a proclamation wishing Eastlake continued success and fulfillment in the years to come.

Global Youth Service Day is a community service event planned, promoted, and led by youth volunteers to benefit local organizations. Children in grades K-7 can drop in at the Parsippany Library between 11 am-1 pm on Saturday, April 22 and help teen volunteers complete a special service project for the local food pantry and animal shelter. No registration required. Pictured below are Parsippany Library TAB (Youth Advisory Board) members: Katie G., Alison C., Cindy L., Janelle P., Rucha P., Karoline X. organizing some of the donated material the Library has generously received from our library customers, for the various projects. These projects wouldn't be possible to make without the support of The Friends of the Library and the Library's generous patrons.
