MAYOR JAMES BARBERIO

Weekly update of 07/24/17

Mayor Barberio's Weekly Update

On Monday, July 24th, I had the honor of promoting Brian Dowd from the rank of Lieutenant to the rank of Captain during a ceremony at Town Hall. Captain Dowd is a Parsippany native, who has been an officer in town for 19 years. He holds a Bachelor's degree from Seton Hall in Administration of Justice and is also a graduate of the NJ State Association of Chiefs of Police Command and Leadership Program. He has received multiple awards and accommodations throughout his career, which include multiple Life Saving Awards, Exceptional Duty Awards, and Command Citations. He previously served in the Patrol Division and Investigative Division. While in the Investigative Division he was the Youth Services Section Commander, where he supervised the Juvenile Detectives/School Resource Officers and oversaw the Police Explorers program which I was able to reinstitute. His new assignment will be commanding the Support Services Division where he will continue to also serve as the Director of School Security.

Congratulations to James Tanga on being sworn in as a Public Safety Telecommunicator! Thank you for taking on such an important role within the Township. Good luck and Congratulations!

Reminder:

The deadline for early bird registration for the Parsippany Fall Festival is approaching fast! Get your registration in by 8/4. All vendor registration ends on 9/8. See the attached flyer for more information. If you have any questions, email the Recreation Department at recreation@parsippany.net

Craftsman Farms, the former home of noted designer Gustav Stickley, is owned by the Township of Parsippany-Troy Hills and is operated by The Stickley Museum at Craftsman Farms, Inc., ("SMCF") (formerly known as The Craftsman Farms Foundation, Inc.). SMCF is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization incorporated in the State of New Jersey. Restoration of the National Historic Landmark, Craftsman Farms, is made possible, in part, by a Save America's Treasures Grant administered by the National Parks Service, Department of the Interior, and by support from Morris County Preservation Trust, The New Jersey Historic Trust, and individual members. SMCF received an operating grant from the New Jersey Historical Commission. SMCF gratefully acknowledges a grant from the New Jersey Cultural Trust. Educational programs are funded, in part, by grants from the Arts & Crafts Research Fund.

Join us at the Lake Hiawatha Branch Library for some weekly programs in July that need NO registration!

- Make and Take Crafts for all ages: Every Tuesday (except July 4 when we are closed) in July from 11:00am - 12:00noon, construct a special craft you get to take home and play with. Each week we'll be making something new. Come make a pinwheel, create a sculpture, or color a paddleball game!
- Learn and Play for ages birth-age 5: Every Friday in July from 11:00-12noon, come play in the story hour room with educational toys and games. This summer's weekly playgroup is a great way for new parents and caregivers to meet other families in the neighborhood!
- Color Your World Mural for all ages: Every Saturday in July from 3:00-4:00pm come in on Saturdays to color our giant coloring mural of the world, and then the United States!
