Mayor Barberio's Weekly Update

Parsippany's penultimate concert was another smashing success. Overboard, a multi-talented band, held the audience captive for hours as they played their renditions of pop music and oldies. People were dancing and swaying to the music, all encouraged to have fun. The local band boasts of two members hailing from Parsippany. Next Thursday night is Parsippany's final concert of the season, sponsored by Provident Bank. Be sure to stop by to hear the music of Time Machine and indulge in a barbecue prepared by ShopRite with proceeds going to the PAL. Hope to see you at 5 pm when the festivities begin. Concert at 7:30 pm.

I would like to congratulate Parsippany's Rescue and Recovery squad on their 1st place win as best appearing rescue truck in the 2017 Roxbury Township 100th Anniversary Celebration. The time and dedication that goes into preparing for this event is unimaginable and the men behind the scenes who make it all happen, definitely deserve this first place win. Enjoy your win, gentlemen!

Parsippany rescue is an independent technical rescue squad in Parsippany that specializes in land/water searches and rescues, vehicle extrications, confined space and fire support. If you are interested in learning more about this squad or even joining please contact chief@parsippanyrescue.org

Mount Tabor's 24th Annual Victorian House Tour

The Mount Tabor Historical Society's annual House Tour will take place on Saturday, September 30, 2017. The self-guided tour will be held rain or shine 11am to 4pm.

The Annual House Tour of the Mount Tabor Historic District allows visitors to get an inside look at the unique charm of this historic community, with more than 15 private houses and historic buildings open to the public. Special features include a furnished replica Camp Meeting Tent and the Richardson History House, a camp meeting cottage museum. Stop by the gift shop, which is stocked with Mount Tabor souvenirs and vintage items.

Step inside the replica Camp Meeting Tent and sample traditional tent life for yourself. You may find it just as charming today as when it was described in the Tabor Record August 1881: "Many delight in the freedom, the light and the air, that a canvas house affords, and hold that half the attraction of the place is in the wholesome outdoor life they lead, sleeping with but a film of cotton between them and the dews of heaven".

Parking will be provided at the Mount Tabor School, located on Park Road, Morris Plains, off Route 53 (GPS: use 864 Park Rd. Morris Plains) where a shuttle bus will be available for transport into the heart of Mount Tabor. Mount Tabor is located in Morris County along Route 53 between Denville and Morris Plains. Visitors who prefer mass transit can take the NJ Transit Morris & Essex line to the Mount Tabor stop.

Tickets are $25 per person in advance via online order or mailed check or can be purchased for $30 on the day of the Tour. For advance tickets, information about the community, photos, and directions, visit our website:

Reminder:

A recurring scam in other municipalities is starting to spread into ours. Scammers will call you and advise you that you failed to pay your tax bill. They will quickly add that you can take care of it over the phone by providing your credit card information.

DO NOT DO THIS!

It is a scam and we do not want our residents becoming victims of it. Again, the Parsippany Tax Assessor will not call you and advise you of a missing payment and request you pay the bill over the phone.

Mayor James R. Barberio invites you to join him and the Parsippany – Troy Hills Police Officers, in partnership with the Parsippany P.A.L. Mentoring Program, for Lemonade With A Cop. After several successful Coffee With A Cop events, which are geared to bridge the gap between law enforcement officials and the community, Mayor Barberio decided to host Lemonade With A Cop. Many of our Parsippany residents requested that we have a similar event where children would be interested in attending.

So, on August 28th Mayor Barberio will be joining the Police Officers of Parsippany and the mentors of the P.A.L. Mentoring Program at the Parsippany P.A.L. to meet the residents they so proudly serve. As with Coffee With A Cop, a national community relations program, Lemonade With A Cop will serve as an opportunity to have an open forum with the public.

We hope you and your children can join us at this end of summer event. This open forum invites any conversational topic from getting to know your Police Officers to expressing any safety or quality of life concerns. Can't make this one? No problem! We will definitely be hosting more.
